

Our Work and Witness: a celebration of Quakerism in Central England

June 30th 2018

Organized by Judith Jenner, Cathy Khurana, and Rhiannon Grant

SATURDAY
Arrivals from 9:30am
9.30 – 10.00am	Refreshments
10.00 – 10.30am	All-Age Worship A time to gather together in worship, with silence, some prepared elements, and space for spoken ministry. After this, the children's programme will be in a separate room or the garden, except for lunchtime, until 4pm.	Quiet Room
10.30 – 11.30am	Getting to know Central England Area Quaker Meeting A chance to meet people from other local meetings and learn about what goes on in our area meeting. We'll explore our structures and get an overview of the masses of Quaker work happening at the moment.	Quiet Room
11.30am	Morning drinks	Dining Room
11.45am – 12.45pm	Meet the Clerks Interviews with one of the clerks of Central England Area Meeting and the clerk of Trustees will help us understand who does what.	Quiet Room
12.45 – 1.45pm	Lunch	Dining Room
1.45 – 2.45pm	Groups Fair – a chance to meet members of our committees and branches People involved in the work of Central England Area Meeting will bring information, interactive activities, and themselves to answer questions and share their enthusiasm.	Quiet Room
2.45pm	Shuffle break
3.00 – 4.00pm	Foundations of our work and witness Why do we do all this? We'll relate the work we've been hearing about to the Quaker idea of testimony and see how it springs from our values and our worship, the heart of our community.	Quiet Room
4.00 – 4.30pm	Closing worship During this period of worship the adult and children's programmes will rejoin.	Quiet Room
4.30 – 5.00pm	Afternoon drinks	Dining Room
	Followed by departures	