

Oceans of Darkness and Light: Finding Hope in Difficult Times

with Stuart Masters

In the world today, many of us struggle to maintain a sense of hope. The Quaker movement emerged during a period of real turmoil and suffering, leading to an experience of great joy and empowerment. In this workshop, we will explore how our Quaker heritage can help us sustain hope in difficult times.

Saturday 10 October 2026, 10:00-13:00

at The Priory Rooms

40 Bull Street, Birmingham, B4 6AF

This free event is open to all Elders and Pastoral Friends from Central England Area Meeting.

Please register Monday 5th October by emailing: admin@ceaqm.org.uk.

A vegetarian lunch will be provided.

Please let us know of any other dietary requirements.